Circus Notes.

Annie Dunn, serio-comic, has left the Forepaugh Show.

Frank Melville has made quite an impression in critical Paris by his fine riding.

Girado Leon and his performing donkeys continue to be a fine comic feature of the Barnum Show. The act is one of the most amusing of circus features, for the children as well as the general audience.

J. B. Gallagher, equilibrist, can be engaged by a first-class circus. The gentleman is a very fine artist in his line of work. He has recently closed a successful engagement at Miner's Bowery Theatre.

The New York Popular Publishing Company have printed two beautiful colored illuminated show bills for newsdealers. They send them free to every newsdealer. Newsdealers should send for a copy of each.

No doubt the New York Popular Publishing Company have the most attractive and best selling song, animal, magic and history books, as has been shown by their contracts with the Barnum, Sells Brothers, Frank Robbins, Hilliard, King and Burke Circuses for this season. Showmen should send for samples and low estimates.
